New England Ride for Kids - Aug 16th

“FROM THE DIRECTOR”

I've heard August means "inspiring awe or admiration."
Hmmm

Our Annual Chapter Fundraiser might have been inspiring; it certainly was not threatened by rain this year!

Thank you to all our chapter members who with great effort and much experience supported the event!

We changed the location of the tents and tables to the south “shaded” side of Cycles 128 parking lot. Under the great large “Elm” tree we had added a bunch of lunch tables for sitting and resting. I heard the food was great!

Our two new vendors provided by Cycles 128 supplied “pin striping and riding accessories” Tucker Rocky supplied a riding suit for our raffle with the proceeds benefiting our chapter fundraiser.

We also presented to John Rice and Cycle 128 a polymer plaque of “Appreciation” for his service to this event and our many of our past chapter events.

Beverly Bootstraps drove off with a vehicle full of can goods and a few monetary certificates.

Our Tour ride was fun and a great success! We became part of a “downtown” Newburyport display...most onlookers/tourists were amazed with our “24 bike brigade” as much as they were with their parade! Where are you going to get a fun ride and be in a parade but chapter “A.” Photos were taken, we'll be posting them soon. It was a great day to see our chapter overcome by so many more GWRRA bikes and New England Riders than ever before, so I heard!

Mt GrayLock Ride. I remembered a few photos sent to me by Rich Davidson on past trips to Mt. Graylock as I ascended the tower glaring out the tiny windows. It wasn't so much the excitement of the climb as it was the descent!

Once I was outside. I began to mozy on down the side walk and then my legs felt pain! My upper leg area was tight from all the steps to reach the tower. I stopped and noticed a few others also experiencing the same tightness.

It was quite a view from up there! We met with Chapter “D” & “F” for lunch before returning home. Photos of the event were taken and shall be posted soon.

Chapter “F” Fundraiser on July 26th ~ Doc had a great showing, even with the threat of rain. They enjoyed a full house (camp lodge) of riders. As we departed to return for home the rain continued to hold off for a wonderful day after all!

Please don't miss the opportunity to help the “Ride for Kids” event ~ August 16th.

I'll need your “adventure” photos and commentary to present Our Chapter Album ASAP!

Our Chapter Meeting is on August 11th at 6:45 pm at the Wakefield Beebe Library!

Our Christmas Party Event. What can you offer and what fun are you capable of? Contact me ASAP.

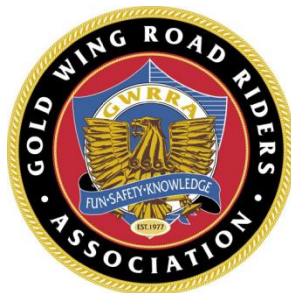

Enjoy your summer,
Mike Lozzi.
